For The Attention of: Mr John Borda

Dear Sir,

Web Page Construction – Professional Testimonial

Firstly, let me extend our thanks for the design and construction of our new company web page. My team have enjoyed working with you and have asked me to pass on our appreciation for the hard work and personal commitment shown by you on this project.

Should you require any personal recommendations for prospective clients, I am more than happy for you to pass on my contact details.

In the meantime thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Yours faithfully

Paul Arnold
Director (Civil Engineering)
